Please review the instructions below so you are as prepared to take the Civic Literacy Exam.

The Civic Literacy Exam
The Civic Literacy Exam is available at the FSU Testing Center at no charge. For available exam dates, visit https://distance.fsu.edu/students/assessment-testing-exams.

Test Registration
To register for the test students should visit https://www.registerblast.com/fsu/Exam/List. Select “Exams for FSU Students”, then “FSU Civic Literacy”, then “Florida Civic Literacy Test”, then choose a date and time to sit for the test.

Not in Tallahassee? Any student unable to take the Florida Civic Literacy exam at the Testing Center on the FSU Tallahassee Campus should contact testing@campus.fsu.edu for additional testing options.

  Instructions:

  - You may take up to 2 hours to complete this test.
  - No special materials will be allowed for the test (scratch paper, notes, etc.).
  - You do not have to complete the questions in order, but be sure to answer all of them before submitting the test.
  - Once you have submitted the test, you will see your final score. A score of 60 or higher is required to meet the Civic Literacy Requirement.
    - If your score is 50-59, you may retake the exam on the same day if time and space permit.
    - If your score is below 50, you should use the study materials available on the Canvas site to review and test again at a later date. There are no limits on the number of retakes to meet the Civic Literacy Requirement.
  - Scores on this test will be maintained in Student Central and certification of meeting the Civic Literacy Requirement will be notated on your FSU transcript.
Before arriving for your test be sure to review the Student Responsibilities for Students testing at the ODL Assessment and Testing facility (items 3 – 11).

After the Exam

- If you pass the exam (a score of 60 or higher), it will be noted that you have “satisfied” the State of Florida’s Civic Literacy requirement on your transcript and in your Academic Requirements report available in Student Central. This information is updated at the beginning of each month for those who passed the exam in the month prior.
- You will not be penalized if you do not pass the exam. Failing to pass the exam will not be reflected in your GPA or noted on your transcript.
- You may take the exam again if you do not pass.
